How much time do you have available for a young dog? You will be adding a family member. How will you deal with a new puppy?

Bernedoodles are best suited to be an indoor pet. They like cold weather much more than hot weather. They can sometimes overheat during the warmer temperatures. Your answers to these questions help us choose the right puppy's qualities for you and your family. Some of the things to consider is a quality dog food. We have had great success with the Purina Pro Plan Chicken and Rice. These dogs will require regular vet visits and recommended vaccinations. They will also require either visits to a groomer or you can self-groom your pet. Please return this information sheet as soon as possible to James or Sherry Johnson at cuddlingdoodles@yahoo.com
